Can express him-/herself more or less correctly with simple expressions and short sentences about everyday aspects of his/her life (i.e. people, places, work experiences, etc.).

Can express him-/herself simply about known topics and personal interests with a very limited repertoire in words and with simple grammatical structures.

Can mainly make clear when talking what he/she wants to say, using simple grammatical structures more or less correctly.

Can express him-/herself in a generally comprehensive way, also if sometimes a foreign accent is clearly audible.

Can use the main stresses and intonations in simple sentences mainly correctly; can divide longer sections with pauses.

Can segment events chronologically with simple words like "first", "then", "after", "later", "at the end" etc.

Can connect expressions and sentences with simple connecting words like "and", "but" or "because".

Can-do-Statements A2 - receptionist

Can, in a talk between native and non-native speakers, pass on simple information about known topics in both languages, using very simple words and grammatical structures in the foreign language and often looking for words.

Can communicate about known topics in a simple way, if standard language is spoken and if he/she can ask every now and to repeat a sentence or to say something using other words.

Can communicate with short, simple expressions everyday needs and circumstances; in unknown situations the communication could become difficult and misunderstanding might happen.

Can sustain everyday situations with a predictable content with simple linguistic means, but the conversation will be somewhat limited because of a restricted vocabulary.

Can talk about known topics; can also follow the change of topics and react to questions when the interlocutor speaks slowly and clearly.

Can express him-/herself clearly enough so that the interlocutor can understand him/her normally, even if a clear foreign accent is audible and he/she sometimes has to ask for clarification.

Can use intonation so precisely that statements, questions or requests are clearly distinguishable.

Can ask the interlocutor to repeat or to spell, and can him-/herself meet this demand.
