for Linguistic Capacities in Foreign Languages

Level 2 (B1) – travel agent

This project has been financed with the support of the European Commission. The authors are solely responsible for this publication and the Commission does not accept responsibility for the use that could be made of the information contained within it.

General Can-do-Statements

SPEAKING

Can express him-/herself with a sufficiently vast repertoire of words and expressions and sometimes with the help of paraphrases about most topics of everyday life (i.e. family, hobbies, personal interests, work, journeys, etc.).

Can connect single elements in an account to a complete story.

Can apply his/her knowledge of the foreign language in a way that the content is very comprehensible even if clear mother tongue influences regarding grammar and vocabulary are present.

Can apply a broad range of simpler linguistic means in a flexible way, in order to be able to express most of what he/she wants to say and to vary his/her expressions.

Can express him-/herself in a simple but coherent way about known topics and personal fields of interest.

Can express him-/herself relative fluently and comprehensibly, although he/she makes pauses to plan and/or correct his/her expressions, especially when speaking for a longer time.

Can express him-/herself generally in a clear and comprehensible way, although sometimes a foreign accent is audible and the wrong intonation is used.

Can connect his/her expressions with different connecting words; longer talks might remain disconnected.

Can-do-Statements B1 – travel agent

Can participate in general discussions if the persons speak clearly; he/she might sometimes ask for repetition of certain words or expressions.

Can communicate correctly in well-known everyday situations with a repertoire of standard expressions.

Can speak - in spite of clearly discernible influences of the mother tongue - in a way that his/her interlocutor has to ask for repetition only now and then.

Can initiate and carry out a simple conversation about known topics.

Can communicate to foreigners - with simple expressions or with the help of paraphrases - the main topics from oral texts in the mother tongue regarding topics of personal or general interest, even if he/she needs the help of the interlocutor in formulating exact sentences.

Can pass on the most important contents of written mother tongue texts of personal or general interest with simple formulations and sometimes with the help of paraphrases to foreigners in their language, even if he/she needs sometimes the help of the interlocutor and/or a dictionary.

Can pass on, during or after a mother tongue conversation regarding topics of personal or general interest if clear standard language is spoken, single words or whole expressions to foreigners in their language.

Can communicate important questions and answers regarding topics of everyday life (i.e. family, hobbies, personal interests, work, journeys, etc.) in simple conversations between foreigners and native speakers and pass on important information in both languages, if the foreign interlocutor speaks clear standard language.

Can pass on important messages with simple words in both languages (sometimes with the help of paraphrases) in conversations between native speakers and foreigners, even if the foreign interlocutor has to ask for clarification every now and then.

Can-do-Statements B1 – travel agent

WRITING

Can - in everyday situations - write down notes using keywords sufficiently correctly with a decent quantity of vocabulary.

Can correspond sufficiently with private pen-friends, writing about events, feelings and wishes.

Can apply his/her orthographic expertise in a way that he/she only makes occasional errors which may cause misunderstanding.

Can write, thanks to a sufficiently vast repertoire of words and expressions and sometimes with the help of paraphrases about most topics in his/her own everyday life (i.e. family, hobbies, personal interests, work, journeys, etc.).

Can use a broad range of simple linguistic means in a flexible way, in order to express most of the things he/she wants to say.

Can write simple, coherent texts or lists of key words about known topics and the personal field of interest.

Can write a composition regarding a known topic, emphasizing the main issues.

Can connect in his/her text the main issues with connecting words, whilst longer passages may remain inconsistent.

Can write down, with key words, important topics of simple texts in the foreign language for native speakers in his/her common language.

Can summarize in his/her language (possibly with the help of a dictionary) important topics of foreign texts of personal or general interest.

Can write down with simple words in the foreign language important issues from oral or written mother tongue texts regarding topics of personal or general interest.

Can-do-Statements B1 – travel agent

LISTENING

Can understand, thanks to a sufficiently vast vocabulary, many expressions regarding topics of everyday life (i.e. family, hobbies, personal interests, work, journeys, etc.).

Can understand frequently used idiomatic expressions in everyday situations.

Can understand the main issues also in longer passages if standard language is spoken and the subjects are known (work, school, free time, etc.).

Can generally follow the main issues in a longer conversation in his/her presence if clear standard language is spoken.

Can understand, possibly with some difficulty, what is said in his/her presence, but he/she might have problems to participate in conversations with foreigners, if they don't speak clearly and slowly in the foreign language.

Can-do-Statements B1 – travel agent

READING

Can understand many texts written in the foreign language if the issues regard everyday life (i.e. family, hobbies, personal interests, work, journeys, etc.).

Can understand frequently used expressions in texts of general interest.

Can understand sufficiently non complicated texts regarding topics from his/her field of interest.

Can summarize for foreigners the most important contents of mother tongue texts of personal or general interest in their language (possibly with the help of a dictionary).
